Dorothy Barber is now

Mrs. R.C. Lupton
7938 - Edson Ave.

S. Burnaby, B.C.

When I lived in Vancouver in 1955-56 we saw each other a few times.

If the reunion for the West is in Vancouver there would be five (counting Dorothy) from B.C. Perhaps Rhoda Wood Green might get up from California. The Alberta girls shouldn't find it hard to come, the Rogers Pass is a wonderful highway. I had thought we might see through U.B.C. and observe the Physical Ed.

Depts. in action but classes are through by May 16 and summer school would not start until later. Perhaps P. Laebe will come up with a good idea.

I think you girls are wonderful for thinking up this good idea. Hope there is a good response.

Sincerely,

Gwen

would prefer a time to besides just visit with the girls ~~other~~ than lunch & dinner rather than a tour. Thank the tea to honor staff - excellent - also the buffet-supper. What about a Bar B. Q. on the Mon. - or an informal type of getting together on that holiday.
Mind you - anything planned - will be fine

When we had our Mac. Hall reunion, out of a class of over 80, (most of whom were in Ont.) Only 32 arrived. our M.E.S. group is widely scattered & there are only about 32 of us. However, the answers to this questionnaire should ~~could~~ determine whether or not enough are interested to make it worthwhile. Good luck!
